Call and See.
WE take this method of saying to all persons indebted to us, on Note, Book account, or Judgment, that we want our money, and intend to take measures to collect it. Many have owed us for years, and all our accounts are now due, as all our present year's accounts are payable on demand. We intend shortly placing a large portion of them in proper hands for collection, and those who do not wish to be sued will do well to call and make some arrangement. It is out of the question to give longer indulgence except something more definite is done than mere promises to "pay as soon as I can." We are thankful, and always pleased to receive even small payments, but we need and must collect all our debts.

TOBACCO INSPECTION AND Storage.

THE subscribers beg leave to inform the public that they continue to store and ship tobacco, and that they have erected in their Warehouse, a superb Tobacco Screw press, which will enable them with convenience and despatch, to open, examine and cooper hhd. of tobacco, where the owners wish to offer it for sale here.
The experience of the present season has proved that the sale of tobacco made at this place and in the country, has been as good as those made abroad, if not better, and it is confidently believed that with a little encouragement and attention on the part of dealers, the home market may become the best, as the charges are less, and the risk and delay avoided. For opening and co-opering, a regular and moderate charge will be made, and every facility given to purchasers to examine and sample the tobacco when opened. Our charges will be,
For storing and shipping per hhd. $1.00
" opening and co-opering per hhd. 50
" storage alone, when supplied by others 50
Efforts will be made, when necessary, to procure the appointment of public inspectors.

Job Work
Executed with neatness, at this Office.

GREAT NATIONAL WORK. TAPPAN & BENNETT.

No. 144, Washington street, Boston, proposes to publish by subscription, in 14 monthly numbers, at the low price of 25 cents each number.

The Life of Washington, BY JAMES SPARKS.
Each number to contain between forty and fifty pages, and to be embellished with the following fine steel and copperplate engravings, viz:

1. Portrait of Washington at 40, by Peale.
2. Portrait of Mrs Washington at 40, by Wollaston.
3. View of Mt. Vernon.
4. Battle of Braddock's defeat.
5. Head quarters at Cambridge.
6. Plan of Boston and environs.
7. Head Quarters at Morristown.
8. Head Quarters at Newburg.
9. Plan of farms at Mt. Vernon.
10. Battle of the Brandywine.
11. Portrait of Washington by Stuart.
12. Encampment at Valley Forge.
13. Battle of Germantown.
14. Facsimile of Washington's hand writing.

The portraits are copied from the original paintings. The plans, sketches and other engravings, have been compiled from the best drawings, as well French and English as American. Special aid was derived from a series of manuscript drawings in the possession of Gen. Lafayette, which are executed with scientific accuracy and beauty.
The well known ability of the author, the abundant means which he possessed, viz: More than two hundred folio volumes of the original manuscript purchased by Congress, ten years researches in the public offices in London, Paris, Washington, and all the States, which formed the confederacy during the Revolution; as well as the access he has gained to valuable papers in different parts of the country, has brought into his hands a mass of materials, original and important in their character, which we trust will be found to have been contrived essential aid in enabling him to execute with more accuracy and completeness his main purpose, and thus to have compensated in some degree, for the time and labor they have cost. Its publication not only involves extended and laborious research on the part of the editor, but great pecuniary responsibility on the part of the publishers.
The price of this work is less when the execution is considered, than that of any other publication in Europe or America. The investment and expenditures connected with this undertaking are much greater than usually attend such publications, and it will be apparent that the publishers must rely on an extensive sale for their remuneration.
The engravings alone, are thought by many, to be worth this whole cost of the work. To non subscribers the price will be much enhanced.
Many testimonials of unqualified approbation might be added, from gentlemen who have examined the work, but the publishers conceive it to be unnecessary. Letters have been received from many distinguished persons, concurring in the opinion that the work is in every respect richly deserving of public patronage.
Among the many who have given the work the aid of their subscriptions and influence, are the following gentlemen, viz:
Hon. John Q. Adams, Hon. Martin Van Buren, Hon. John Pickens, Hon. Jacob Burnett, of Ohio, Josiah Quincy, Francis Wayland, D. D. Rev. Moses Stuart, Robert G. Shaw, Esq., Boston, Henry Lee, Esq., Rt. Rev. Bishop Doane, Hon. James D. Wolf, R. L. Rt. Rev. Bishop Brownell, Hon. Isaac B. Bates, Hon. Horace Everett, Vt., Hon. S. Longfellow, Me., J. Seawell Jones, N. C., Hon. John Sargeant, Pa., Hon. Levi Lincoln, Hon. S. Van Rensselaer, N. Y., Hon. Wm. L. Marcy, N. York, Hon. W. W. Pope, Ky., Hon. L. W. Tazewell, Va., Hon. Tristram Burgess, R. I., Hon. Wm. H. Ashley, Mo., Hon. Daniel Webster, Hon. Abbott Lawrence, Hon. Joseph Story, Hon. Edward Everett, Charles Jackson, Hon. Lemuel Shaw, Samuel T. Armstrong, Wm. B. Calhoun, John C. Warren, M. D., James Jackson, M. D., Gov. John Davis, Worcester, Hon. Chapman Johnson, Va. Active and trustworthy men can find employment in procuring subscribers for the above work.
Letters addressed to the publishers, post paid, with application for agencies, or orders, will meet with prompt attention. Postmasters and others who obtain subscriptions, and become responsible for five copies, shall receive a sixth copy gratis. They will please let the publisher know by the 1st of October, how many copies are subscribed for and how they shall be forwarded.
Editors and proprietors who will insert the above six weeks, shall have a copy of the work for so doing. 44.

REGULAR PACKET.
THE last running passenger steamer U. S. Mail Boreas, T. M. Fithian, Captain, will leave St. Louis, every Wednesday and Saturday evening at 4 o'clock, for Keokuk. On her return, will leave Louisiana, every Friday & Monday evening at 3, and Clarksville at 4 o'clock on same day. As the Boreas carries the U. S. Mail, she can be depended upon to leave regularly and punctually, at the hours appointed.

FLOUR AND LARD
via Pittsburg or Orleans.
THE subscriber will advance in cash 4.50 the market value on Flour shipped direct to the west via Pittsburg or New Orleans, or will advance 2.30, with the privilege of sale in Orleans, if the market will justify. I will also advance, on Wheat, Lard and Pork. My eastern correspondents, are Flour and Grain houses, of long standing, and well acquainted with the market for these staples.
From my Pittsburg correspondents, I have received a tariff of rates on Flour, Lard, &c. to New York via the Pennsylvania canal, which, as the warm season approaches, will justify shipments to New York of Flour and Lard via this quick route. My New York correspondent Flour house, writes it is not safe—being liable to war, to ship Flour from your place via Orleans, after the first of May.
GEO. K. RUDD,
Flour and Grain Factor.
N. B. Having no interest in groceries, or grocery houses, I will purchase and ship these articles at the very low prices, for those who send me orders.

THE NEW MIRROR.
EDITED BY GEORGE P. MORRIS.
ILLUSTRATED BY J. G. CHAPMAN.— EVERY NUMBER EMBELLISHED WITH AN EXQUISITE DESIGN ON STEEL.—TERMS, $3.00 per annum, single No. 61 cents. IN the course of a few weeks, the undersigned will commence, on his own account, the publication of a new series of the New York Mirror, in the octavo form, on an entirely novel and original plan, with Steel Engravings in every number, and at the reduced price of $3 per annum, or 6 cents for a single copy.
The New Mirror will appear with many strange and attractive features, distinguishing it from every other periodical. It will be published with new type, on fine paper, and each number will contain a beautiful engraving on steel, designed and sketched by Chapman, illustrating the letter press which it accompanies, and which it will invest with peculiar interest. Besides the contributions of all our corps of correspondents—which embraces the most of the talent of this country—we have made arrangements for fresh and early translations from some of the best writers of France, and for proof sheets from several of the popular authors of England. With such materials, and with such able fellow-laborers in the literary vineyard, we hope to present to the American reader a weekly journal of great value and unusual excellence. The parade of mere names will be sedulously avoided.—The Mirror will be remarkable, we hope, for good articles without names. It will embrace within its scope every department of elegant literature, comprising tales of romance, sketches of society and manners, sentiment, and every day life, pungent essays, domestic and foreign correspondence, literary intelligence, wit and humor, fiction and gossip, poetry, the fine arts, and literary, musical and dramatic criticisms. Its reviews of new works will be careful, discriminating and impartial. It will aim to foster a literature suited to the taste and desires of the country. Its tendency will be cheerful and enlivening, as improving. It will seek to gratify every refined taste, but never to offend the most fastidious; and it will ever feel its duty to be, to turn the runny side of things to human eyes.
The work will be published every Saturday, in numbers of sixteen large super-royal pages, with double columns, and enclosed in a neat ornamental cover. It will form, at the end of the year, two superb volumes, each of four hundred and sixteen pages, filled with gems of literature and the fine arts.
The very low price at which it will be issued, renders it the cheapest periodical in this or any other country, considering the cost and beauty of its FIFTY-TWO ENGRAVINGS, and the intrinsic value of its literary contents. Those desirous of receiving its paper from its commencement, will have it punctually sent to their address upon forwarding to the undersigned, at No. 4 Ann street, New York, three dollars free of expense.
Letters enclosing the amount of subscription, may be framed by all postmasters. Agents, carriers, and newsmen, will be supplied on the usual terms.
The cash system will be rigidly adhered to without any deviation whatever.
GEORGE P. MORRIS,
Editor & Proprietor, No. 4 Ann st., near Broadway, N. York.

NEW GOODS.
E. G. McQuie, has just received at his Cash Store in Louisiana, Mo., a general assortment of
